

INTRODUCTORY NOTES

by the Proposer of a Candidate for Freedom of The Clockmakers' Company
by Redemption

To be completed and submitted to The Clerk by the Proposer before any contact with the Candidate by the Company

(Note: If any item is not known, please leave blank)

Full Name(s) of Candidate

Honours & Awards / Qualifications

Address and Postcode.....

.....

Age

Profession

Employment.....

Position held

Connection with the Clockmakers' Company?

Connection with The City of London?

Extent of involvement in the horological industry or level of interest in Horology:-

(Tick boxes as appropriate)....Manufacturer? Repairer / Restorer? Writer?

Lecturer? Collector? Amateur-maker? Amateur-restorer?

Any other connections with horology? (please specify)

Any other relevant connections?

Personal interests?

Do you believe that the candidate will:-

Attend Company functions?.....

Be willing / able to provide any specialist expertise to WCC?.....

Donate to the Company's charities?

Skills / Expertise the candidate might bring to the Company?

.....

Reason for Introduction to the Company

.....

.....

.....

Name of Proposer.....Date.....

Note: The Selection Panel reviews every application before submitting it to the Court for approval, and so no promises should be made to any prospective candidate. The Company is still closely connected with the craft and the Panel prefers candidates to have connections with the craft or a minimum of a serious interest in clocks and / or watches.

Once completed, please return to:
Clerk to The Worshipful Company of Clockmakers
1 Throgmorton Avenue, London EC2N 2BY

E: Clerk@clockmakers.org

November 2013