CAROL SERVICE

St Sepulchre-Without-Newgate
Holborn Viaduct London EC1A 2DQ

Thursday 7th December 2017 at 6.30 pm

Our Carol Service this year will be held at St Sepulchre-Without-Newgate Church opposite the Old Bailey in the City of London. It will be a traditional service of carols and lessons led by members of the Church's choir at 6.30pm on Thursday 7th December 2017.

The Service will be conducted by the Revd David Ingall, Rector of the Parish of St Sepulchre-without-Newgate.

Supper: sandwiches, mince pies, wine and soft drinks will be served in the church after the service.

The original St Sepulchre-without-Newgate Church was rebuilt in the 15th century but was gutted by the Great Fire leaving only the outer walls, the tower and the porch standing. Modified in the 18th century, the church underwent extensive restoration in 1878; it narrowly avoided destruction in the 2nd World War although the 18th-century watch-house in its churchyard, erected to deter grave-robbers, was completely destroyed and had to be rebuilt. The church is now the largest parish church in the City.

All members of the Company, Liverymen and Freemen, plus friends and families are warmly welcomed to join the Master and Wardens at this Service. Children under the age of ten can attend for £5.00pp.

Applications for places, using the tear off slip below, should be submitted to the Clerk by Monday 27th November 2017 – either by transfer or by cheque – details below. Please note that tickets will not be issued.

The charge is £28.00 per head for the service and supper, or £20.00 for the service only. Tickets will not be issued.

The offertory collection will go to the Church.
