

Michaelmas Court Dinner and The Harrison Lecture Tuesday 25th September 2018

The Harrison Lecture and Michaelmas Court Dinner will be held in the Clothworkers' Hall, Dunster Court, EC3R 7AH on Tuesday 25th September 2018:

Reception: 6.00pm Lecture: 6.50pm Dinner: 7.40pm

The Guest Speaker this year is Rory McEvoy, Lecturer in Horology at the School of Jewellery, Birmingham City University and the title of the Lecture is “Art and Mystery – a tale of two significant early 18th Century pieces by George Graham”. Rory was the Curator of Horology at the National Maritime Museum Greenwich from January 2010 to March 2018 and he is a Liveryman of the Clockmakers' Company.

All Liverymen and Freemen, especially those being admitted at the Admissions Court at 5.00pm the same day, and their guests, are very welcome to attend the Lecture and Dinner. The cost is £90.00 per person. Dress is lounge suits for men and equivalent for ladies. Livery Badges can be worn by Liverymen.

If you wish to attend, please complete and return the proforma below with your cheque or transfer, to be received at the office by Friday 7th September 2018

Please note that neither tickets nor Pour Memoire cards will be issued for the Lecture and Dinner.

□ ----- □ ----- □

Michaelmas & Election Court Dinner and the 2017 Harrison Lecture Tuesday 25th September 2018 6.20 for 6.50pm

I wish to book place(s) at the Michaelmas & Election Court Dinner and Harrison Lecture

I enclose my cheque (“The Clockmakers’ Company”) for £ at £90.00 per person. Or I have transferred this amount to: Sort Code: 60-00-01 Account Number: 09801774 (Reference: “Michaelmas”)

Name

Address

E-mail Telephone

Names of Guest(s)

Any special dietary requirements?

.....

.....

PLEASE REPLY TO THE CLERK BEFORE FRIDAY 7th September 2018

Clerk@Clockmakers.org

or: The Clerk, Clockmakers’ Company, 1 Throgmorton Avenue London EC2N 2BY