

Michaelmas Court Dinner and The Harrison Lecture Tuesday 1st October 2019

“The lines, which are so very fine”: John Harrison, William Hogarth and the trouble with drawing a line of Longitude by Dr Katy Barrett FRSA

The Harrison Lecture and Michaelmas Court Dinner will be held in the Clothworkers’ Hall, Dunster Court, EC3R 7AH on Tuesday 1st October 2019:

Reception: 6.00pm Lecture: 6.50pm Dinner: 7.40pm

All Liverymen and Freemen, especially those being admitted at the Admissions Court at 5.00pm the same day, and their guests, are very welcome to attend the Lecture and Dinner. The Lecture, titled, “The lines, which are so very fine”: John Harrison, William Hogarth and the trouble with drawing a line of Longitude will be given by Dr Katy Barrett FRSA, Curator of Art Collections at the Science Museum.

The cost is £92.00 per person. Dress is lounge suits for men and equivalent for ladies. Livery Badges can be worn by Liverymen.

If you wish to attend, please complete and return the proforma below with your cheque or transfer, to be received at the office by Friday 11th September 2019

Please note that neither tickets nor Pour Memoire cards will be issued for the Lecture and Dinner.

□ -----□ -----□

Michaelmas & Election Court Dinner and the 2019 Harrison Lecture Tuesday 1st October 2019 6.20 for 6.50pm

I wish to book ..... place(s) at the Michaelmas & Election Court Dinner and Harrison Lecture

I enclose my cheque (“The Clockmakers’ Company”) for £ ..... at £92.00 per person. Or I have transferred this amount to: Sort Code: 60-00-01 Account Number: 09801774 (Reference: “Michaelmas”)

Name .....

Address .....

E-mail ..... Telephone .....

Names of Guest(s) .....

Any special dietary requirements? .....

.....

PLEASE REPLY TO THE CLERK BEFORE FRIDAY 11th September 2019

Clerk@Clockmakers.org

or: The Clerk, Clockmakers’ Company, 1 Throgmorton Avenue London EC2N 2BY