

The Livery Dinner

at Merchant Taylors' Hall EC2 Tuesday 5th November 2019

Reception 6.45 pm for 7.30 dinner; carriages at 10.30 pm

The Clockmakers' Livery Dinner will be held on Tuesday 5th November 2019. It is our biggest and grandest event of the year. We endeavour to make this as special an occasion as possible and the Master and Wardens invite Liverymen and Freemen of the Company and their guests to join them in the splendid surroundings of the Merchant Taylors' Hall. Dating back to 1347, the Great Hall is one of the largest Livery Halls in the City. The Principal Guest this year will be Commander Maryla Ingham RN, Commanding Officer 1st Patrol Boat Squadron, Royal Naval Base Portsmouth.

Tickets are £125.00 each. You can pay by bank transfer to the Clockmakers' account: Sort Code 60-00-01 Ac No 09801774 (Reference: "Surname" and "LD19") or you can send a cheque payable to the "Clockmakers' Company" with your booking form.

Dress: Evening dress with decorations; for gentlemen this is white tie (preferable) or black tie, and ladies are requested to wear long dresses or long skirts. All members are encouraged to invite guests and to apply early for tickets – and by Thursday 9th October at the latest. Pour mémoire cards will be sent out after that date.

To apply for tickets, please complete and return the proforma below to the Clerk – by post or by email.
